WHEN Col. Sanford boasts that everybody is for him for the nomination for Representative it shows that he is reckoning without the court house. If the Colonel will take a stroll through the corriders of that ancient structure some day he will be surprised at the density of the anti-Sanford sentiment.

THE glove manufacturers of America, who are protected from 44 to 60 per cent, by the Dingley bill, have just formed a $20,000,000 trust to enable it to reduce the cost of manufacture, consolidate the sales agencies, get rid of drummers and raise the price of gloves. Here is a fair illustration of Havemeyer's suggestion that protection is the mother of trusts.

I had falling of the womb and 50 per cent. in the last twelve months by the operation of trusts which control the manufacture and sale of most of the necessaries of life. At this rate what will become of the boasted purchasing power of dollars coined over the single gold standard dear dollars when the people offer their labor or its products for sale; cheap dollars when they go to the market to buy?

> FARMERS are complaining because he price of wheat has gone down nearly fifty per cent within the last year, while the price of articles manufactured by the trusts is about fifty per cent higher. Two years ago when Mark Hanna raised the price of wheat the farmers' exuberance was unbounded, but since Mark is giving the trusts a chance at higher prices and is neglecting the farmers. they are trying to make trouble for the Administration. No administration can please everybody, so Mark's will please the trusts and let Demon Hurley Was First to Break it go at that.

It is possible that the invitation from the Exposition society and the Pennsylvania society of Omaha for the reg ment to stop there for a meal, will be accepted.

The escort committee is now engaged in making commissary arrangements, as hot meals are to be served the men enroute. It is intended to leave here on the same day as the muster out, which has been fixed for Aug. 22.
